Comprehension - Florence Nightingale

Florence Nightingale was born in Britain in 1820. At the time, many people were poor and lived in terrible conditions. Florence was lucky because her family were rich.

Rich women at the time were not expected to work. Instead, they got married, had children and looked after the house. But Florence had a different dream-to be a nurse. Florence trained to be a nurse and cared for poor and sick people. She loved her work, but wanted to do more. In 1854, the British Army was fighting a war in another country. The army hospitals there needed nurses like Florence to help.

1. In what way was Florence lucky?
2. What was life like for lots of people in 1820? Write one.
3. Write two things rich women were expected to do.
4. Why did the army hospitals need nurses to help?
