Comprehension - Florence Nightingale

In 1660, Florence started a school for nurses. Her students went to lessons and trained on wards too. Florence thought hospitals should be clean and bright and that there should be different wards for patients with deadly diseases.

In 1907, the King gave Florence a special award for her work caring for soldiers. It was the first time the award had been given to a woman. Florence died in 1910. Every year, nurses around the world celebrate International Nurses Day on 12th May. This was Florence's birthday.

8. Why do you think Florence wanted patients with deadly diseases to be on different wards?

9. The king gave Florence a special award. Why was this award unusual?

10. Why is 12th May an important day for nurses around the world?
