Year 3

W/C

Homework books must be in school on Monday and will be returned on Tuesday.

Reading

Please read aloud to an adult every day for about 15 minutes and ask the adult to sign in the table below. Remember, you need to understand what you are reading and be able to show this in your Accelerated Reader test.

Remember to bring your reading book to school every day. Please visit Nelson School Library or East Ham Library for your books.

Comprehension.

This week we are looking at questions that require you to give your opinion based on evidence you find in the text. For these questions you need to make your point and also give your evidence as to why you think this. It is important that you have evidence to support what you say. Read the texts carefully and answer the questions, making sure that you back up your point with evidence from the text.
