Comprehension

The Eagle by Alfred, Lord Tennyson (published in 1851)

He clasps the crag with crooked hands;
Close to the sun in lonely lands,
Ringed with the azure world, he stands.

The wrinkled sea beneath him crawls;
He watches from his mountain walls,
And like a thunderbolt he falls.

Comprehension questions

Comprehension and vocabulary

1. Look at the first two lines. What do they tell the reader about the eagle's location? Give as much detail that you can.
2. Azure is a synonym for which adjective? Write another sentence that uses the word azure as an adjective.

Extra learning:

Extended writing

6. Writing a short poem is often much more challenging than writing a long one. Write a short but powerful poem about an animal of your choice. Make sure your poem has lots of descriptive imagery, and that you use as many poetic techniques (alliteration, personification, simile, metaphor) as you can.
