The Eagle by Alfred, Lord Tennyson (published in 1851)

He clasps the crag with crooked hands;
Close to the sun in lonely lands,
Ringed with the azure world, he stands.

The wrinkled sea beneath him crawls;
He watches from his mountain walls,
And like a thunderbolt he falls.

Comprehension

Comprehension and vocabulary

1. Look at the first two lines. What do they tell the reader about the eagle's location? Give as much detail that you can.
2. Azure is a synonym for which adjective? Write another sentence that uses the word azure as an adjective.

Techniques and effect

3. Look at the words clasps, crag and crooked (line 1) and lonely lands (line 2). Which poetic technique is this an example of? Do you think this is effective?
4. In line 4, the sea is described as "wrinkled." Do you think this is an effective description of the sea? Why?
5. Look at the last line: "Like a thunderbolt he falls." Which poetic technique is this an example of? What does it tell the reader about the eagle's movement?
