Dear Mrs Rowley,

I am writing to request that you declare this weekend to be 'homework free' for reasons I have outlined below.

Firstly, all year groups have been working incredibly hard preparing for our end of year assessments. Surely it is better to allow us a few days relaxation in order to recharge our batteries. We are certain to arrive at school on Monday morning, full of energy and ready to work.

Secondly, many children attend clubs on a Saturday and Sunday, such as swimming, riding, football or rugby. Being fit and active is just as important as being able to read and write. The children are learning valuable skills which are impossible to teach in the classroom.

Finally, it is hugely important that we spend quality time with our family. Many parents are busy working throughout the week and often arrive home just before bedtime. Weekends also provide an excellent opportunity to spend precious time with grandparents.

I do hope that you consider these points seriously. The whole school will be eternally grateful if this weekend was declared 'homework free'. Many thanks for taking the time to read this letter and I shall wait expectantly for your response.

Yours sincerely,

Tom Bowers
